PEGGY SAYS

Much activity in progress at the RANCHO DEL MONTE COUNTRY CLUB in Carmel Valley...we're working awfully hard to have everything in grand order for the big opening in April.

Among the interesting additions will be an aviary of tropical birds--a glamorous shell collection with colorful shells from all over the world.

We think our new Tropicana Room is a dream. Wait until you see the murals!

Paul says if you're interested in a membership in our much-fun Club, do inquire.

Betsy Abbott says

THIS TIME IT'S THE FULL LENGTH COAT by STROOK, America's most distinguished manufacturer, that is a "must-go-see." In the first place the price is important. These classics, which appear again and again in the best shops, are only $69.98. No wonder we consider them a real buy. The colors are gold, Kelly green, cascade (the loveliest pale turqoise with flecks of brown) and beige.

In addition to these "smooth sailing" Strooks, THE COLLEGIATE DRESS SHOP has some coats of Forstman cloth (100% wool)--California Traveler Originals--very light weight with hand-stitched cuffs and smooth shawl collars. These are favorites with those who like to look their best in something distinctly feminine. You can have one of these coats in pale pink, beige, clean white, iris or gold. So, if you like a nice thick warm, but light, coat, stock up with a Strook. If you prefer a more dressy coat--with all the warmth and beauty in the world--treat yourself to one of these California Traveler Originals...at the COLLEGIATE DRESS SHOP, 489 Alvarado Street, in Monterey.

FAMOUS BRAND NAME LINGERIE AT HALF PRICE...Yes, that's what the thoughtful owner of HARRIET DUNCAN DRESS SHOP is offering now, for she knew these dainty garments would make such nice Valentine or Easter gifts. Some of the slips are trimmed with imported lace...and there is a wide variety to choose from...at the exaltingly low price of $3.95. It isn't too early to think about Easter...and Valentine Day is next Wednesday. Don't just sit at home and feel guilty on either of these special days, but hurry down now to the HARRIET DUNCAN DRESS SHOP, on Sixth and Lincoln, and have one of the saleswomen fix you up with a box beautifully gift-wrapped containing an exquisite piece of lingerie.

SPECIAL RELIGIOUS EXERCISES AT CARMEL MISSION

Starting Sunday evening, February 11, at 7:30 o'clock, special religious exercises will be held at the Carmel Mission. In keeping with the spirit of Lent, which is a period of penance, the church reminds its followers to meditate on the great truths of Christianity. It is to further this purpose that the week of spiritual exercises is planned.

There will be mass each morning at 7:30, followed by a short instruction period. At 11 o'clock daily there will be special exercises for the school children. Each evening at 7:30 the rosary, a sermon and benediction will be given.

The Rev. Philip Gibbons, a member of the Passionist order, will be in charge. He is from Sierra Madre in southern California, where weekend retreats are held weekly for the laity. Father Gibbons has specialized in retreats for non-catholics. He will preach on timely subjects in keeping with present-day world conditions, and on the church.

LYNN'S FASHION SHOW BIG SUCCESS

Lynn's Ltd's participation in Friday's benefit fashion show for the Youth Center treated the crowd filling the Carmel Woman's Club to the sight of classic suits of finest gabardine, tweeds and flannels by Evans of Beverley Hills.

Also a treat was the appearance of Mrs. Conlan's little daughters, Lindy and Sherry, pert and cute in dresses designed by their talented mother for the young fry. The finale was an exquisite hula danced by Maupuana Andrews, clad in a cotton muumu, with the little girls also dressed in muumus.

Mrs. Edith Morrisson commentated the many other striking fashions, including luxurious bankers coats and lounging pajamas of silk brocade.

SCHOOL OPENED AGAIN Thursday, and Carmel youngsters lost a free holiday. Slackening of epidemic was blamed.

AWVS PLANS FASHION SHOW

The American Women's Voluntary Services will sponsor a luncheon and fashion show Tuesday, February 27, at Del Monte Lodge, Pebble Beach. The fashion show will be presented by the Carolyn Kelsey Shop and the Fairy Frock Shop at Pebble Beach. Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. L. R. Carey, at 7-3151, and will also be on sale at the two shops.

Proceeds from the fashion show will be used to buy furniture and equipment for the arts and crafts room at the Seaside Youth Center. Chairman of the newest AWVS project--the arts and crafts program--is Mrs. Robert Aumer.

41ST ANNIVERSARY OF BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

Joining with Scouts throughout the nation, the local Monterey Bay area Boy Scout council is participating this week (February 6-12) in the celebration of the 41st anniversary of the founding of the Boy Scouts of America, it was announced today by Fran Petersen, council commissioner of the counties of Monterey, San Benito and Santa Cruz--the area served by the local organization. Highpoint of the week will be the launching of the third year to strengthen liberty program, by training youth to appreciate the blessings of living in a democracy. Locally, there are now 3,928 scout members and 1,405 adult volunteer workers.

The following message from President Truman for Boy Scout Week was made public last Monday:

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

To the Boy Scouts of America:

In sending you warm greetings and hearty congratulations on the occasion of Boy Scout Week, February 6 to 12-your forty-first anniversary-I speak for all patriotic citizens who believe Scouting is a bulwark against the evils of our times.

Scouting's determination to give to every boy the chance to absorb the benefits of the movement's program for physical, mental, moral and spiritual development promises well for our nation. In the days ahead we will need, as never before, men of high character, resolute purpose and unflinching courage to meet successfully the problems of a challenging future.

Your enrollment of 17,500,000 members since 1910 and your present active membership of 2,750,000 as disclosed in official records is a great achievement. It speaks eloquently for our democratic way of helping boys through devoted volunteer leadership.

Your determination to continue with your campaign to strengthen liberty is most reassuring and merits sustained public approval. One and all, you have earned the confidence of our people and I salute you for your patriotic and selfless service.

What Do You Say ? "TO THE DRAFTING OF 18-YEAR-OLDS?"

POLAROID One-Minute Photograph.

COL. THOMAS E. MAY (Ret), insurance broker: "I think it's too bad we have to do it, but I don't believe it distrubs their education as much as a 19-year-old's. The 18-year-old is in a sort of transition period anyway. Moreover, I think many of them will find their way into technical training and specialist schools which will help them find themselves as they might not otherwise. And remember, the GI's who returned to school after World War II gave the other students plenty stiff competition; they were there for a purpose; they were more mature. I don't believe these youngsters should be sent immediately overseas to combat, nor is it likely they will be sent. They should be placed in a tactical unit in this country for a year and be properly trained before being sent to combat. They'll have a much better chance of coming home than the older boys who are drafted and sent to combat after 13 weeks or so of basic training. During World War II, our 18-year-olds were the most susceptible to training. I think married men without children should be drafted before the 18-year-olds.

BOBBY UPDIKE, Carmel High student and All-CCAL halfback (who will be 18 years old in August: "I think it's okay if they'll let the kids at least finish high school. I guess I'll be called later but not now. Don't think I'll mind going too badly."

EVE SOREY, shop owner: "I think that training the 18-year-olds isn't too bad; they'll eat it up. But I think 18-year-olds going overseas and into combat immediately, is much too young. I think it all borders on sending them into active combat immediately or not. If this is necessary, I'd take sending childless married men first.

HARRY DIXON, waiter: "Take them by the time they're able to nourish themselves. They're going to make a career of it anyway."

Editor's Note: Send in a question of your own. $1 paid for each question used. Address: "What Do You Say?" Box AO, Carmel.

The BANK OF CARMEL

... is pleased to announce that on February 13 there will be a Federal income tax official at the bank, during regular banking hours, to assist anyone needing help with his income tax report. Tax payments may be made to this government representative.

On March 1, there will be a State Deputy at the bank to give assistance in the preparation of state income tax reports.

HAVE YOU PROPER ATTITUDE?

Safe driving is a matter of proper attitudes as well as skill, according to the California Highway Patrol. The skill required to guide a car safely through heavy traffic is high, the Patrol pointed out, but it is not beyond the capacity of most persons.

"The trouble is that the development of proper attitudes has not kept pace with engineering and enforcement," the Patrol said. "Every driver knows he should signal his turns or intentions. Even the dullest know that it may be fatal to race a train to a grade-crossing. But many otherwise normal drivers occasionally take chances, often with tragic results.

"The failure of drivers to observe the rules of the road, traffic signs and posted warnings--at all times--will build habits and attitudes that sooner or later will bring them to grief.

"Traffic laws are based upon common sense and the necessity of sharing the roads with millions of other persons.

All Saints Church Dedication

PARTICIPANTS IN THE FORMAL DEDICATION of All Saints' new church last Sunday file along the south portico of the edifice at Dolores and 9th, just prior to making their processional entry. Bishop Karl Morgan Block of the California Episcopal diocese, who led the ceremonies, is seen in front of crozier at extreme left, speaking to Bishop Winfred Ziegler. Next two clergy ahead of them are Canon Charles A. Dowdell and Rev. J. Armistead Welbourn. Between the clerics and the white-robed choir are 20 new communicants of the church, who were confirmed by Bishop Block immediately after the dedication. Rev. Alfred B. Seccombe, rector of All Saints', is seen along side choir, carrying book. Photographs by ARTHUR McEWEN.

Leaving Tot With "Sitter"

By GARRY CLEVELAND MYERS, Ph.D.

MANY a mother writes of the child under three or four who is never happy out of her sight. What a scene when this mother tries to leave this child with a baby sitter or in the nursery department of a Sunday school or at school when he later enters there!

Every mother should start early, even when the youngster is a mere infant, to have the father or another member of the family or another person seen often by the child for some time take care of him for brief periods, at first while the mother is present and later while she is absent. Always this procedure should be gradual, for a few minutes at first and for slowly-increasing periods later. As soon as the child is old enough to play with others of his age, this play can help him grow less dependent emotionally on his mother.

Common Problem

The most common problem arises when the parents begin the practice together of leaving the young child with a baby sitter. How difficult it may be for the child from a year to four or five years of age when he discovers suddenly that his parents are going out and leaving him with a person he saw for the first time only a few minutes previously.

Wiser parents, before their first time of leaving the little child with a baby sitter, employ her to come much earlier in the day, or to come for an afternoon or two while they are home, so the youngster may grow acquainted with her.

Strange Person

Imagine yourself, a little child, awaking to see a strange person (baby sitter) and to learn that the parents have gone away without telling you they were going. Such an experience by a child may have ill effects for an indefinite period, causing him to have fear that he might be left again and even to dread having his mother out of his sight. He also may have many frightful dreams for months and months. (My bulletin "Fears" may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this paper.) Discerning mothers, who plan to go out, always announce casually to the child the fact in due time, just as they also apprise this child beforehand of any other change in his program which might not prove pleasant to him.

But suppose that, in spite of all proper precautions, the youngster indicates before the parents are about to go away and leave him with a baby sitter, strong objections to their plans and cries violently as they go. The mother's impulse is to feel very much upset and to betray her feelings to the youngster. If, as she leave him, he cries piteously and clings to her, she may linger and even go back several times to caress him, and all the while he may grow more hysterical and she more upset.

Casual and Final

She could make it easier for the youngster and herself if she were to make her leaving casual and final, and not even look back. Though the youngster may cry violently as she goes, he may cease crying before she will have gone a block.

An occasional mother has been so constantly with the child even up to when he is past two or three that she can't have the heart to go out and leave him and to see and hear him cry after her. This mother might more easily gain the fortitude to leave him with a baby sitter if she were to practice gradually at being out of his sight right in the house; later to put on her hat and coat and walk around the block, leaving him with a person he knows, repeating this performance several successive times, each time staying away a bit longer. One mother told me she made eight of such trips during one forenoon and that on the seventh and eighth trips the youngster didn't cry at all as she left.

MRS. MARTIN OF KC VISITING ED. COCHRANES

Mrs. R. J. Martin of Kansas City arrived today to spend two months with her daughter, Mrs. Edward W. Cochrane, at the latter's home on Hatton Fields Mesa. Mr. and Mrs. Cochrane returned yesterday from Los Angeles, where they spent a week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Baron Long and Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Robinson. Mr. Long is president of the Biltmore Hotel Co., and Mr. Robinson is owner of the Southside Journal in Los Angeles. Mrs. Martin arrived in Los Angeles yesterday and drove up to Carmel with the Cochranes.

PEBBLE BEACH NOTES...

Mr. Frank T. Heffelfinger of Minneapolis has arrived at Del Monte Lodge for his annual visit. Mr. Heffelfinger has many friends on the Monterey Peninsula, where he has spent several months each winter for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. George Nickel of Pebble Beach have left for a six-week motor trip to Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin L. Helgoe of San Marino are at Pebble Beach to enroll their son, Lorn, in the second semester at Douglas School. Mrs. George Betts (Mrs. Helgoe's mother) is accompanying them. The Helgoes plan to spend some time golfing at Pebble Beach during their stay.

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Hudson honored the Samuel F. B. Morses with a dinner last week prior to the latters' departure on a Mediterranean cruise. The Morses left their Pebble Beach home Sunday for New York, where they will sail on the Independence for a three months trip.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gage Brady, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel A. Freeman, Jr., of New York have arrived at the Cypress Point Club, Pebble Beach, to spend a few days. The foursome will be widely entertained during their stay. Among those who have scheduled parties in their honor are Mrs. Henry Potter Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hunt and Mrs. Frances A. Elkins. The W. W. Crockers spent the weekend with Mrs. Russell.

New in Style—New in Structure—New in Power—New in Thrift—Potent in Price Appeal—It's the 1951 BUICK SPECIAL!

HERE is good news for folks with a shrewd eye for what their dollars will buy.

Here is a tidy traveler that defies the upward trend of costs—proudly wears a 1951 price tag like that which zoomed last year's SPECIAL into popularity so great that it put a crimp in "the low-priced three."

Take our word for it, this is every inch and ounce a Buick—Buick-featured, Buick-designed, Buick-built from the ground up—but literally the newest thing on wheels.

The sturdy and ample body is new. The high-strength frame is new. The power is new to the SPECIAL, which now has the thrifty F-263 engine that first made its name in the SUPER, and here delivers 120 horsepower with standard transmission—128 with Dynaflow Drive.*

It's a Buick with less weight and more power—and that spells a pair of new thrills for you. There's a performance thrill such as you've never enjoyed in the SPECIAL—plus a handsome gas-saving into the bargain.

We'll make a prediction now as to what title folks will give it, once they get it out on the road. That title in three words, will be: "Thriftiest Buick Yet!"

Better hurry around to your Buick dealer's and look this marvel over. We'll give you another prediction—which is:

Once this one's discovered, the demand will be terrific.

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on other Series.

ORCHESTRA FEATURES SCHUBERT SYMPHONY FOR CARMEL CONCERT

Franz Schubert's Seventh Symphony is the major work now being rehearsed by the Monterey County Symphony Orchestra in preparation for its next concert to be given at the Sunset Auditorium in Carmel, March 6. Co-co nductors of the orchestra are Clifford Anderson of Monterey and Lorell McCann of Salinas. Next month's concert will be presented under McCann's direction. Orchestra rehearsals are being held every Monday evening at Carmel High School.

In addition to the Schubert work, the following compositions will be presented at the March 6 concert: Mozart's Concerto No. 3 for Horn and Orchestra; Leroy Anderson's "A Trumpeter's Lullaby;" the "London Again" suite by Eric Coates, and "The White Peacock" by Charles T. Griffes.

Stephen McCann, son of the conductor, will be featured on the French horn in the solo passages for that instrument in the Mozart concerto. Pvt. Paul Nelson of Fort Ord will be heard in the solo part in the "Trumpeter's Lullaby."

In addition to Pvt. Nelson, a number of other experienced soldier-musicians will appear for the first time with the local orchestra at its March concert.

Lorell McCann, conductor, is head of the music department at Hartnell College in Salinas. He received his professional training at the New England Conservatory of Music, where he studied under George W. Chadwick, Wallace Goodrich, and Joseph Adamowski. Among McCann's compositions are "A Romantic Poem, in C minor, for Viola and Piano," "Concerto in F minor for Violin and Piano," and "Tone Poem in D major" for full orchestra.

MRS. RUSSELL SCOTT WILL SPEAK TO PTA

The Carmel Parent Teachers Association annual Founders Day program will be held Tuesday, February 13, at 2:30 P.M. Mrs. Russell Scott, citizenship and international relations chairman for the California Congress of Parents and Teachers, will be guest speaker. Mrs. Scott returned recently from Washington, D.C., where she had been invited to attend the White House Conference on Child Welfare. The topic of her speech, "Why and Whatfor of PTA," promises to answer the questions new members and friends have asked regarding the aims and principles of the organization.

Many past presidents are planning to attend the Founders Day ceremony. Presentation of a life membership in the PTA will close the program. Tea will be served by hostesses Mrs. Jack Dalziel, Mrs. Fred Nelson and Mrs. W. S. Potter.

LOCAL PLANE SPOTTERS NEEDED

More volunteer members to increase the ranks of the Ground Observation Corps were called for this week by Chief Observer Cedric Jasper. Over last weekend, 22 watchers manned the lookout post surmounting the San Carlos Hotel, in two and three hour watches, from 8 A.M. to 5 P.M. daily. It was the first practice alert of the present emergency.

A corps of 46 members is the present goal set by Jasper. Glenn T. Goodwill, superintendent of Monterey Schools, is the post supervisor, and is charged with working out the 24-hour emergency schedule. No further call is planned for the volunteer workers until the next "war games" test is held.

COMMUNITY CONCERT ASSOCIATION PRESENTS VIRGINIA MAC WATTERS

The coloratura soprano, Virginia MacWatters, assisted by Curtis Steams at the piano, will be presented in a concert this evening (February 9) by the Monterey Peninsula Community Concert Association. Commencing at 8:15, the program will be held at the Pacific Grove High School Auditorium.

Miss MacWatters, in her sparkling interpretations of leading coloratura roles, has been very popular at New York's City Center Opera Company for the past five seasons. Guest artist of both the San Francisco and Philadelphia La Scala Opera Companies, she also made a smash hit in London at her Covent Garden debut in 1947. Latin America raved about her in the summer of 1948 when she appeared for the first time in Guatemala singing "Lucia." Festival favorite, she has appeared at Lewisohn Stadium, Ann Arbor, Worcester, Grant Park, Redlands Bowl, New Orleans and Hollywood Bowl. The gifted soprano has been chosen as soloist by such leading orchestras as the New York Philharmonic-Symphony, the Philadelphia, Chicago, National and Toronto Symphonies. Recitals have taken her repeatedly throughout the United States and Canada.

The following program gives promise of being a treat to music lovers:

Aria--Ah, non credea mirarti from "La Sonnambula," by Vincenzo Bellini; "Die Lotosblume, by Schumann; "Die Forelle, by Schubert; "Standchen" by Strauss; Aria--Depuis le jour, from "Louise," by Gustave Charpentier; Air du feu, from "L'Enfant et les Sortileges"--Ravel; "Nuit d'etoiles" by Debussy, and Recitative and Gavotte, from Massenet's "Manon."

Following the intermission will come "The Rose and the Nightingale," by Saint-Saens; "Your Presence," by Meta Schumann; Harriet Ware's "By the Fountain" and Sir Julius Benedict's "The Wren." Then, the Recitative and Aria--Laetitia's Lament, from Menotti's "Old Maid and the Thief;" Embroidery Aria, from "Peter Grimes," by Benjamin Britten; "Rain Has Fallen," by Fredric Kurzweil; Mopper's "Men" and Wolf's "Jack-in-the-Box." The final rendition will be the Aria--Una voce poco fa, from Rossini's "Il Barbiere di Siviglia."

OPENING NIGHT OF "EAST LYNNE" AT FIRST THEATRE

The gala opening of "East Lynne" tonight at California's First Theatre, Monterey, is the theatrical event of the month. Rhea Diveley, who has been directing at the First Theatre for over a year, with distinguished results, has directed "East Lynne," one of the great classics in American dramatic history. Producers are Dene Denny and Hazel Watrous; costumes and settings are by Rhoda Johnson; Richard Johnson is stage technician; Patricia Semple is prompter; James Vincent, assisted by Neil Allred, is in charge of props and back stage shiftings, and John Burgers is emcee.

The very fine cast includes Harry Davidson as Sir Francis Levison; Terry Eby as Archibald Carlyle; Ray Necel as Lord Mount Severn; Joseph Gilbert as Richard Hare; John Burgers as Dill; James Rutledge as the Officer; Jeanne Rutledge as Lady Isabel; Carmen Mercant as Barbara; Clare Barnwell as Joyce; Jean Allred as "Miss Corny;" Edythe Amaral as Wilson; Liz Easterly as Little Willie.. Appearing in the olio only are Gail Johnson, Hedy Steudler, Pamela Beales and Patricia Semple.

"East Lynne" plays tonight, Saturday and Sunday nights--thereafter on Saturday nights only.

BAWDY FRENCH MOVIE AT HILL

"The Scandals of Clochemerle," which comes to the Hill Theater screen Sunday afternoon to play through Wednesday night, is one of those beautifully bawdy French movies, like "Carnival in Flanders," which get touted more for their bawdiness than for their beauty.

The situation, of course, lends itself to this sort of exploitation, since here the point of crisis is the building of a monumental pissoir, backed unanimously by the males of Clochemerle, opposed unanimously by the females. When the Minister of the Interior calls in the army, confusion only mounts as the soldiers make capital of the townsgirls' current disaffection for the local men. At last, the President of France resolves the crisis by ordering that the "monument" will stand.

This is essential bawdiness. But lending their talents to its telling, and creating unforgettable characterizations in the process, are such great ones of the French stage as Maximilienne, Felix Oudart, Brochard, Paul Demange, Orbal, Armontel and Saturnin Fabre. The beauty these fabricate from questionable material is that of spirit and the finesse of art.

CARMEL ART ASSOCIATION TO FEATURE WARSHAWSKY

The Carmel Art Association has announced this week the opening of A. G. Warshawsky's one man show, on February 15, at the galleries in Carmel. Encompassing almost two score paintings, the show will be representative of the work done by Warshawsky since 1946. The main focus of interest in the exhibition will be his latest Paris paintings. The show will last through February.

FOLK DANCE INSTITUTE

A folk dance institute, with Grace Perryman as instructor, will be held at the Armed Services YMCA in Monterey, on Tuesday evening, February 6, from 7:45 to 11 o'clock. The instructor is well known in folk dance circles as an able teacher, and will instruct the group in some of the new dances.

The institute is open to those who are familiar with the basic steps... Beginners should not attend.

ROLE OF PSYCHIATRY SUBJECT OF TALK BY FREIDY HEISLER

The advancement in the diagnosis and treatment of mental and emotional illness was explained by Dr. Freidy Heisler, M.D., in a discussion of "The Role of Psychiatry in Modern Society," at Sunset Auditorium, last Tuesday evening.

How environmental factors affect an individual's mental health was shown in an army documentary film recently made available to the public. It showed the similarity between military and civilian psychiatric problems arising from these factors. The film also showed how screening processes determine the patient's illness and govern his treatment.

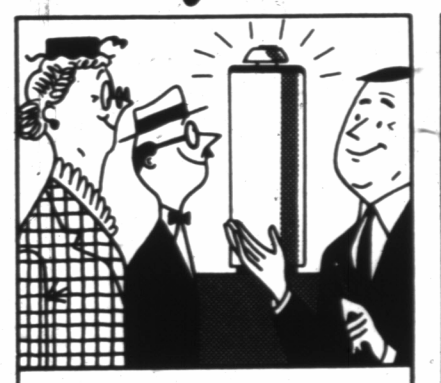
"Plenty of hot water sure makes a difference, doesn't it?"

Every time the Carter children
Came to eat with Mom and Pop
There were dishes, dishes, dishes...
But hot water? Not a drop!



Then one day the Carter Seniors
Stopped to see a dealer who Showed them what a water heater
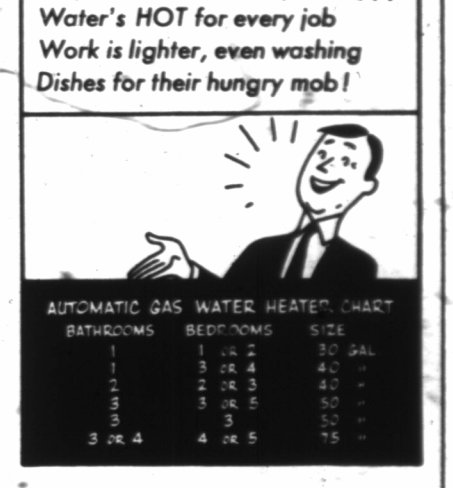
Of the proper size would do.

They invested, now they're happy
Water's HOT for every job
Work is lighter, even washing
Dishes for their hungry mob!



Now's the time to replace that worn-out or too-small water heater. Remember! New automatic laundries and dishwashers require more hot water than ever. And the new automatic gas water heaters can supply it... 24 hours a day... for only a few pennies. Your dealer will demonstrate their superior insulation, greater efficiency, streamlined appearance. Have him chart your hot water needs. You'll find the modern gas water heater a good investment... for many years to come.

Good hot water costs very little here in Northern and Central California because P. G. and E. gas rates are among the lowest in the nation.

ANSWER TO THIS WEEK'S WHO IS IT?

Of special interest to Peninsula theatre goers is our "Who Is It?" this week--Mrs. Rhea Diveley, director of the Troupers of the Gold Coast of California's First Theatre. Mrs. Diveley's experience has extended from coast to coast, for her theatrical career began where all really successful troupers' should begin--on Broadway. Even as a fine arts student at the University of Southern California, the call of the "boards" was strong, for although a music major at the university and later at Horner-Redpath Institute of Fine Arts in Kansas City, Missouri, Mrs. Diveley's first love was drama. And getting to Broadway was one of those exciting things that just happens to the lucky ones.

While taking a course in voice with Oscar Seagle, he said to her at the close of a school theatrical performance in which she had taken part, "You're wasting your time in music, you should go to Broadway." So, like so many other starry-eyed hopefuls, she did just that, landing in New York without parental consent and with $30 in her pocket. She went to the Seagles' home and from there straight to the Broadway office of Archie Selwyn. Asked out of the blue, "Can you dance?" she replied "Yes!" In spite of the fact that except for a few steps learned in a gym class at college she had never had a lesson in her life, she proceeded to show what she could do. No one was more bewildered than she to find herself signed on as a specialty dancer, and with a Broadway career embarked upon. From "Among the Girls," her first show, the curtain rose and fell for ten years on more than 200 roles which she played on Broadway, in Chicago, and in all the large eastern cities.

Although she left Broadway to be married, she was soon back in the show business, directing radio skits and writing script for RCA and Columbia Broadcasting. A short "vacation" to Mexico City terminated in an 11-year stay, during which Mrs. Diveley did more radio work there.

During World War II, determined not to be outdone by two brothers who joined up, she took government training in international code and went to Albuquerque to work in the office of TWA. En route on the train she was told by a government inspector from a precision instrument company, who had noticed the delicate strength of her hands, that they were just what was needed for precision work. So, after spending each day at the teletype, she trained each night, with only four hours of sleep between, in the precision instrument factory. Having learned the highly skilled techniques required, she was sent to Denver for three years as head inspector--working with two-tenths of a thousandths tolerance in aluminum parts for radar.

A two-week "vacation" in Carmel three and one half years ago has not terminated yet, for she is now directing her sixth show at the First Theatre in Monterey where tonight is opening night for "East Lynne." This play has an entirely new cast of 17 players, and although it is itself a pretty serious play, it will be followed by a bang-up olio. "It's fun and I love it, but if anything does develop out of our present situation, I think I'll do my bit again in the precision instrument game."

BACK FROM KOREA last weekend on a short leave, James Kelsey (right), commander of American Legion Carmel Post No. 512, is welcomed home by Chester Stalter, commander of the Legion's District 28. Kelsey, now serving aboard a Navy supply ship, was one of Carmel's first veterans to be recalled to the service; he was in the Navy in World War II.

Kelsey's ship supplied vessels assisting the evacuation of UN troops from the Hungnam beachhead in Korea and is now undergoing repairs at the Mare Island naval yards. Returning on Monday with Kelsey to Mare Island were his wife, Frances, and nine-month-old daughter, Randy. They'll return to Carmel about February 15, at which time Kelsey comes home on a 10-day leave.

SCHOOL KIDS FLEE FLU. When the SPECTATOR went searching student reaction to the surprise "school flu" vacation, enforced upon them Tuesday by a threatened epidemic, the first place it looked was Carmel High School. Naturally this was a bad start. But even the Carmel streets were stripped of school kids as cleanly as if by a plague--or the danger that school authorities suddenly would recant and reconvene classes.

The puzzling disappearance of all the city's teen-agers and grade school youngsters was partially solved at last. A truckload of flu fugitives from Carmel High was apprehended in flight to the Carmel beach. The grinning refugees paused only long enough to submit the following opinions of the flu to the press: Denny Maher, "Keen!"; Don Canham "It's okay!"; Bud Grant, "Swell!"; Jerry Colman, "Bewitchin'"; Doug Smith, "I feel sorry for the guys who're sick;" Bob Laugenour, "The best thing that's ever happened!"; Craig Moore, "Hope this flu comes more often;" Jack McCormack, "S'good!"; Sam Robison, "It only happens in Carmel;" John King, "Too bad it's high tide;" George Stebbins, "Lucky!"; Skipper Lloyd, "Nice;" Dick Hilgers, "Awful hot;" Mike Elliott, "Excellent!"

Lincoln's Birthday
1865

Born into the poverty of a frontier family . . . he rose to the highest position the American people can confer upon a man. And during his years of public service, Abraham Lincoln showed in all of his words and deeds that he never stopped believing in the greatness . . . the freedom . . . and the dignity of the people.
